

COMPANY PROFILE

COMPANY PROFILE

Our plant which started its operation by manufacturing portable cutting machines in 1989 with the entrepreneurship of Mr.Hakan Sakar, is continuing its activities among leading companies in PVC and aluminium profile processing machines industry today with the management of Hakan and Erhan Sakar in the name of Efor Tasarim Makine San.Tic.Ltd.Sti .

Our company has moved its activities to the modern plants which cover 3000 m2 area in Atatürk Organized Industry Region in the year 2004 to meet growing market needs and to be able to give faster and more qualified service. It is moving towards by means of competency in world markets with its dynamic and specialized staff and its innovative structure.

Efor machine performs its serial and special production with the latest technological machine parcur. Our machine parcur consists of CNC vertical operation and CNC lathe, stonning bench, Hydrolic Akbant, hydrolic giotin, chrome covering plant and static painting plant.

Our plant reflects its production and design experience to, PVC and aluminium profile processing machines that is in serial production and also to the production of special machines. The sensitivity given to R & D work and the fact that all kind of activities in the design- production stage of the product is done through CAD-CAM 3D programs in computer; is an indication of the importance we give to the quality of our products.

RISUS brand has been developed through our long lasting experience which integrated with ethical values and gave direction to advanced technology and goes on its way with this impression.

Our products brand named Risus , as well as our wide domestic customer network, is being exported to Germany , USA , Russia , Azerbeijan , Ukraine , Iran and Dagestan .

Efor Machine, without giving any concessions in quality and customer satisfaction, will continue to service to the customers with its products which is in compliance with international standarts.

We give shape to profile so as you stay peaceful with nature.

Your sincerely